The IECEP Constitution and By-Laws (CBL), Article IV, Section 8 to 9 states the conduct of the Nomination and Election for National Board of Directors of the Institute. Section 8.c states that "The Nomination Committee shall screen the nominees to determine their qualifications and prepare a final list of qualified candidates." With the acceptance of the nomination, the candidates bind themselves to perform and discharge the duties and responsibilities of the Board and actively participate in all proceedings of the Board and attend all its regular and special meetings. Relative to the release of the Official List of Candidates for the IECEP NBOD 2024-2025 Elections as endorsed and recommended by the IECEP Nomination Committee 2023 on the 9th of November, 2023, official campaign period for each of the candidates shall now commence until the end of the voting period. Each candidate is expected to be role models of a positive campaign aimed at advocating why you should be elected as a National Board of Director and leveraging your platform of governance for the betterment of IECEP. IECEP shall also give an equal opportunity platform for ALL of the candidates as they will be invited to the next episode of IECEP CaUSAP and they shall be ALL also featured together with their submitted platform of governance through the Upcoming Events E-Advisory via an email blast to all of the registered MyIECEP Portal email addresses. These efforts shall be led by the IECEP Publication Committee.

Section 9.a and 9.c of the IECEP CBL respectively states that "All voting members shall exercise their right to vote in the election of the National Directors.." and "Each Member qualified to vote under these By-Laws and who is of good standing in the Institute is entitled to one vote." In this regard, the general membership of IECEP is advised to check the status of your MyIECEP Portal Account and check if you are a member in good standing to be able to exercise your right to vote. All chapters and their chapter officers and trustees are hereby directed as well to assist their members in verifying the status of their members. The National Secretariat is also tasked to assist as needed in the verification status of members.
